SEPTEMBER 12-15, 1932

Oregon welcomes the American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary.

We are proud and happy to act as hosts to this great organization of men who served and sacrificed for their country during the World War, and to the allied women's group which has so loyally aided in their accomplishments.

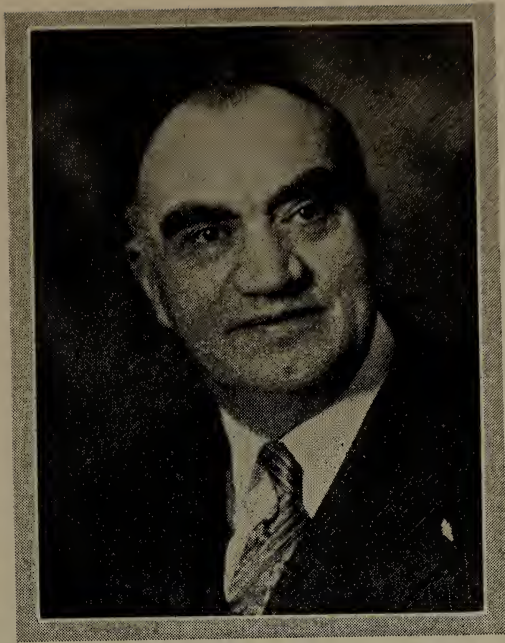

We want you to enjoy to the utmost the incomparable natural beauty of our state and the unexcelled opportunity for recreation and sport. We want your meeting to be memorable for happy reunions with comrades, for inspiring contacts, for delightful entertainment, and for friendly western hospitality.

May your convention be the greatest in the history of your organization and may you carry away with you renewed inspiration for your program of service to your fellow men, your communities, and your nation.

Julius L. Meier

Governor of Oregon.

It is my pleasure to extend, in behalf of the people of the City of Portland, a cordial welcome to the delegates of the American Legion in attendance at the annual convention in our city from September 12 to 15, inclusive.

We are glad to have you visit our beautiful city of roses and spend a week enjoying the attractions that we enjoy throughout the year. We want you to see our beautiful natural scenery, our highways, our points of interest, our great harbor, our surrounding fern-carpeted districts as well as our thriving business center and our beautiful residential sections, and by all means our magnificent United States Veterans' Hospital.

It is our sincere hope that each and every one of you will enjoy your visit and return to your homes with a warm spot in your hearts for Portland.

Cordially yours,

Mayor of Portland.

FISHING AND OUTINGS: Oregon and the Pacific Northwest are in the heart of nature's evergreen land. If you like to fish, Oregon is the fisherman's paradise. If you like to get out in the open, beside glistening lakes or rushing streams amidst towering forests, Oregon can give you vacation memories never to be forgotten. If you can tarry awhile, or if you can find a few hours during the convention week, do not fail to take a fishing trip or get into the great outdoors. Scientific propagation and protection have kept the state's waters teeming with fighting fish—salmon running up to 45 and 50 pounds; trout 20 inches and longer that rise to a fly, bass that will give you a thrill to remember. Oregon's great and famous fishing streams, the Rogue River, the Mackenzie River, the Deschutes and scores of others, together with innumerable lakes, are within easy reach. A two or three-day trip should be planned if possible. If you do not like to fish, a real experience will be a boat trip on one of the scenic streams. They are disappointment proof. Take along camera to make the folks back home "see and believe". For special fishing or outing information call the Chamber of Commerce, 190 Fifth at Taylor, or the Oregon State Game Commission, Oregon Building, Fifth and Oak streets.
